WELCOME LETTER

Dear colleagues, dear partners,

On behalf of the European Society of Surgical Oncology, I am pleased to invite you to participate in the 44th edition of our Annual Congress, which will take place from 15 to 17 October 2025 in the city of Gothenburg, Sweden.

Gothenburg is not just renowned as Sweden's automotive capital, but also where the drug omeprazol was created, changing surgical practice world-wide. It is also home to Sahlgrenska University Hospital, the largest in the Nordic region and a referral hospital for cancer patients from the region, other parts of Sweden and from other countries. The city is recognized for its leadership in medical care and research, further enhancing its status as a key player in our field.

The ESSO Congress has experienced remarkable growth over the years, firmly establishing itself as the premier event for the Surgical Oncology community. Bringing together surgeons, oncologists, researchers, and healthcare professionals from over 70 countries worldwide, the congress serves as a forum for sharing knowledge, fostering collaboration, and advancing surgical oncology practices. It provides an unparalleled opportunity for companies like yours to connect with key decision-makers, showcase innovative products, and strengthen brand recognition in the oncology community.

Our success is built on our state-of-the-art programme that covers a wide range of tumour sites, new treatments, and new technologies. Our goal is to make sure that our delegates can use this knowledge and enhance their daily practice, and ultimately improve patient outcomes.

Our success also depends on the vital support of our industry partners. Over the years, we have cultivated many long-term relationships with partners who have contributed to the continuous growth and evolution of ESSO and its congress. To our existing partners, your steadfast commitment to ESSO has been invaluable, and we look forward to continuing our collaboration.

For those not yet familiar with ESSO and/or its congress, we warmly invite you to join us in October 2025 in Gothenburg. Your participation is instrumental to the success of our ongoing mission to improve surgical oncology care across Europe and beyond. We offer a range of sponsorship and exhibition packages tailored to meet your marketing objectives and budget. This brochure describes the many available options and opportunities. Our team is ready to work with you to customize a package that aligns with your business goals.

We look forward to seeing you in Gothenburg for yet another year of innovation, education, and meaningful connections.
